Flix Jobs

User Manual

SAI KRISHNA MANNAVA

Table of Contents

1. User of the application
   - In this application, Users are the people who are searching for the jobs in IT field.
   - People can find the details of the jobs by clicking on any of the jobs listed in this page.

2. Intent of the Application
   - This application acts as a platform for everyone who wish to attend events job placements
   - Users can stay updated about all the job events happening in and around the city.

3. Registration
   - Users can sign into the application from the registration page. Firstly, Click on the 'Sign Up' button on the navigation bar and enter the user details and click on Submit.
   - Users should make sure that valid input is entered into all the input fields.

4. Login
   - All the registered users can sign in the application using their valid Email ID and password by clicking on the 'Signin' button on the navigation bar.
   - Unregistered users need to sign up to be able to login.

5. jobs list
   - When we click on the 'jobs' link on the navigation bar, we get a list of the available jobs. Users can see the available jobs even if they are logged in or not.

6. Job detail
   - When the user clicks on the name of a job from the jobs list, they can see the details of that particular job.
   - These details include job name, date & time, image, details of the job and rsvp.

- Users can rsvp to the job-related event only after logging in.
- Users who posted the job can view the edit and delete buttons. The edit button will redirect the user to the 'editjob' page where he will able to edit the details of the job.
- With the help of the delete button the user will be able to delete the job from the portal.

7. New application or job
- After logging in Users can add a new job by clicking on the post a job link on the navigation bar.
- A form will be opened, which can be filled to create a new job.
- Users should make sure that they enter valid input into all the input fields.

8. Myjobs
- If a user is logged in, they can view their jobs by clicking on my jobs button on the navigation bar.
- This will show a list of jobs which are saved by that particular user.

9. Updating/ Deleting an RSVP
- When the user clicks on 'my jobs' link in the navigation, they can view the saved jobs where they can update or delete the rsvp to the job.
- When they click on update, they will re-directed to the job_detail page where they will be able to change the rsvp to 'yes', 'no', or 'maybe'.
- When they click on delete, they can delete the job completely from their saved jobs list.

10. editing/ Deleting a job
- If the user wishes to update or delete a job, they can do so by clicking on the 'edit' or 'delete' button in the job_detail page.
- When the user tries to edit the job, they can change the job details like category, date& time etc. But, the user will not able to change the jobname.
- When the user tries to delete the job, the job gets completely deleted from the portal and will not be listed in any other user saved jobs.

11. Logout
- To logout of the account, user can click on the 'signout' link in the navigation bar.

12. About
- The user can find an 'about us' link in the footer. By clicking on it, they can view the details of what the application is about.

13. Contact information
- Contact button can be found in the footer as well. By clicking on it, the user can submit the form with his contact information after which they will receive response from the application management team.

.